

Forestry Education Symposium Registration

Please join us for the first semi-annual North Central and Northeast Regional Forestry Education Symposium!

This event is presented by Bradford County, Susquehanna County, and Wyoming County Conservation Districts to provide in-person forestry education to private landowners, loggers, and forestry professionals, to continue and expand knowledge and understanding of forestry practices, forester selection, sustainability, and forest health.

This event will include eight different forestry presentations from local professionals on topics such as managing your woodlot for wildlife, forest disease, invasive species, logging best management practices, timbering regulations, and more!

The day will begin with Event Sign-In and Opening Welcome, and will include a light breakfast, catered lunch, and your choice of multiple guest speaker presentations to attend throughout the day.

Presentations will conclude at 3:00 pm with the option to attend a Guided Forestry Tour of a previously timbered and properly managed site hosted by Robert Hobbes of Hobbes Forestry Services.

Transportation for the guided tour will be provided for those that register for this portion. The tour will be concluded at 5:00 pm at the Wysox Fire Hall Building.

When: Friday September 23rd, 2022
